MEMO: Coach Dee Nutt and Coach Wally Bullington

FROM: John Allen Chalk

DATE: November 20, 1968

Two week-ends ago I was in Atlanta, Georgia and became personally acquainted with Jackie Bradford, the basketball coach at the Greater Atlanta Christian Schools, Inc, Box 277, Indian Trail Road, Norcross, Georgia. Jackie is an outstanding young Christian athlete who is deeply concerned about steering good athletes to a good Christian college that has a strong athletic program. He confided in me that he did not feel good about the quality of the present coaching situation, at least in basketball, at David Lipscomb College, and that he had a young man playing in his area whom he knew would be sought after by SEC schools. The young man is a Christian and Jackie believes he can get him to come to Abilene Christian College. I would like to urge you, Coach Nutt, to get in touch with Jackie at the above address or at 404/448-8078.

Coach Bullington, I talked with Jackie about looking for good football prospects in Georgia. He indicated that he would. I think it would probably be a good idea for you to write him and establish rapport. He is a very intelligent young man deeply interested in Christian athletes.
